Dear Lord, enable us to sense a new dawn in our spiritual lives,
that we may glorify You always.

The Sunday(s) after Easter

Luke 24:52-53

Worship begins with the blood of Jesus. Our encounter of worship tends to be Made in US. If you are going to check the label, worship begins in the presence of God and it is provided for by God.

The OT symbols of worship share with us, How do we do this?

Just as “strange fire” was forbidden, so “strange incense” could not be offered (Ex. 30:9). A person was forbidden to bring “strange” praise to God. He had to come in the way God had prescribed, conforming to who God is and the way God has opened. We today cannot bring acceptable worship and prayer to God unless we see Him as He has revealed Himself in the Scripture and as He has provided forgiveness in the historic solution of Christ’s death upon the cross.¹

Final Thought:

During these times of quarantine and privacy, may we find new ways of worship. Ways that will change our eternity. A picture given to us in Revelation is that all of heaven wept looking for who was worthy.

Revelation 5:1-5

Our Worship begins and ends in Jesus. There is no other way.
