“Rooted”

[Barrier Busting: The Worst of Them]

1 Timothy 1:12-17; Acts 9

How do you change the roots of conviction so deeply buried within a heart?

Convictions: What are your convictions?

_____ Experience

(vs 1-9)

_____ a new message

(vs 15-22)

New _____

(vs 23-31)

Our Christian testimony has created a certain expectation in the minds of our friends, and rather than jeopardize our standing with them we dutifully act in accordance with their expectations even though we have no personal conviction about the matter.¹

Final thought:

When God reaches into the toolbox of church beings that would fill the task, He seeks the best tool for the job. If the tool really seeks to be of service to the master, he responds, “Do with me as you will.” This is the testimony of Paul/Saul and you will find millions of others that it is our testimony too.

You may not remember their names, but you know their King, His name is Jesus. That is who we live for. May it be as rooted in you was it was in them.
