As we progress in our journey through Lent, dear Savior, help us remember that we don't live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from You (Matthew 4:4).

The doors of this house of God are open to one and all.
Today we praise God as brothers and sisters in Christ.

Reality: We Are Family

John 19:23-27

This was for His mother and for John's benefit, but also a statement as to the priority of family within the church and outside the church.

It was between 9:00 am and noon when Jesus looked over to His mother and John. He looked at His mother and said "Dear woman, here is your son." And to John, He said, "Here is your mother."

For the followers of Jesus, their world was crumbling:

For Mary, Jesus' mother, it was crumbling for two reasons:

1. Because her boy was being cruelly t_____.
2. She lived in a society that didn't have s_____s_____.

For John, the world was crumbling, too.

But there's more going on.

- Mark 3:31

Jesus made it clear, those who believe in God are members of His family.

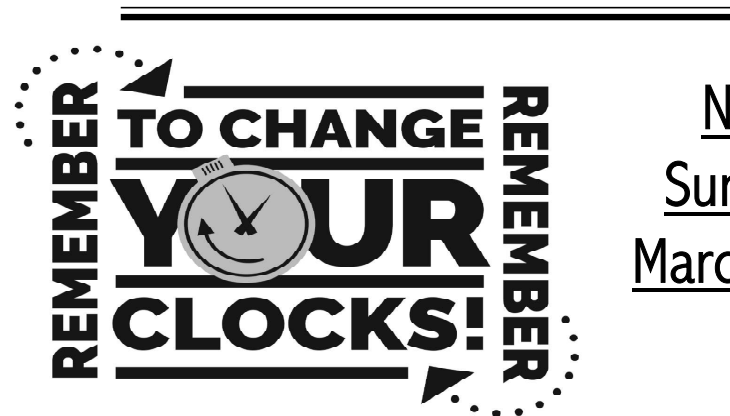

- Acts 2:44

Here is your mother...
